

CENTURY CEMENT COLLEGE

Baikunth, Dist.- Raipur (C.G.)

Alumni Association 2025

The Alumni Association of Century Cement College, Baikunth serves as a bridge between the institution and its former students. The association strives to maintain lifelong relationships with alumni and encourages their active participation in the academic, professional, and social development of the college. Alumni play an important role in mentoring students, sharing industry experiences, supporting institutional development, and strengthening the college's reputation.

During the academic session 2024–2025, the Alumni Association organized several activities aimed at fostering interaction among alumni, faculty members, and current students.

. Objectives

- Maintain an updated alumni database.
- Organize alumni meetings annually.
- Encourage alumni involvement in seminars, workshops, and guest lectures.
- Promote placement and internship opportunities.
- Recognize distinguished alumni for their achievements.
- Support the college in quality enhancement initiatives.

. Alumni Contributions

During 2025, alumni contributed in various ways:

- Career counselling
- Student mentoring
- Guest lectures
- Placement guidance
- Professional networking

- Academic interaction
- Participation in IQAC activities
- Support in college events

• Outcome

- The Alumni Association successfully strengthened the relationship between former students and the institution. Alumni participation significantly benefited current students through mentoring, career guidance, motivation, and professional exposure. The association remains committed to contributing towards the academic excellence and holistic development of Century Cement College, Baikunth.

Conclusion

- The Alumni Association of Century Cement College, Baikunth continues to play a significant role in institutional development by fostering meaningful engagement between alumni and the college. Through regular interaction, mentoring, and collaborative initiatives, the association contributes to enhancing educational quality and student success. The college expresses sincere gratitude to all alumni for their continued support and looks forward to strengthening this partnership in the years ahead.